

Registering for POUL 1010E (online) as a Transient Student

Summer Transient applicants are defined as students who are currently enrolled at another institution of higher education who wish to attend one term at The University of Georgia (UGA) and transfer course credit(s) back to their home institution. Course credit(s) accrued as a transient student may also be used towards meeting future Transfer Admission Requirements at UGA.

Summer Transient applicants must submit a Letter of Good Standing or an Official Transcript from their home institution along with their application. Currently, Summer term is the only term Transient students may enroll in POUL 1010E or any other UGA online course.

To Apply: Visit <https://www.admissions.uga.edu/access.html>, create an Application ID Account, and follow the application instructions. For Application type, choose "Summer Transient." For the Intended Major section, fill out as denoted below:

School/College: College of Agriculture and Environmental Science (CAES)

Frist Intended Major: Avian Biology

Reason for choosing major: To enroll in POUL 1010E

You may leave the Second Intended Major portion blank.

Application Fees: Please note that a transient application fee applies when submitting a transient application.

Application Deadlines: The deadline for applying for the 2014 summer session of POUL 1010E is May 15.

After you submit your application, please notify Dr. Adam Davis (ajdavis@uga.edu), the course instructor, so that he can shepherd your application through the system.

Once accepted to UGA as a transient student, you will be able to register for the course.
